

Quick Facts

- Offers comprehensive news and information coverage of the Chicago area and the nation starting in 1849
- Ideal for convenient, fully searchable and Web-based research
- Includes coverage of all major wars and other significant national topics as well as first-hand stories specific to the Chicago area
- Complements other historical, print and electronic history resources
- Offers the renowned credibility and excellent news coverage of the Chicago Tribune

Over 150 years of respected news coverage

Published since 1849, the Chicago Tribune is one of the nation's oldest continuously published newspapers. The information in its vast historical archive provides a unique and fascinating look back at noteworthy issues and events from throughout the past 150 years, both within the city of Chicago and across the nation. NewsBank delivers this wealth of retrospective information in a convenient, fully searchable Web-based archive.

An unprecedented resource for historical research

The Chicago Tribune Historical Archive features in-depth information never before available in a fully searchable format, making it the first historical database of its kind. This archive includes compelling accounts of famous issues and events, including coverage of all major wars and military actions involving the United States in the 20th century. Additionally, it contains vast amounts of information specific to the Chicago area—such as firsthand accounts of Chicago gangsters, crime and prohibition—that are part of both the city's and the nation's rich history.

Significant historical research value for a wide range of topics

The Chicago Tribune Historical Archive complements other print and electronic history resources, providing increased coverage that adds depth to research projects and assignments. As a source, the Chicago Tribune's is renowned nationally and internationally for its excellent news coverage and credibility, making it a valued addition to any bibliography. Researchers can use this archive to explore diverse national and Chicago-area subjects, including:

- |  |                               |                                |
|--|-------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| • Architecture                         | • The Cold War                | • World War II                 |
| • Art Reviews                          | • Crime                       | • The Korean War               |
| • The Arts                             | • National and Chicago Sports | • The Vietnam War              |
| • Chicago Ethnic Communities           | • Politicians                 | • U.S. Presidencies            |
| • Chicago Gangsters                    | • The Progressive Era         | • U.S. & Russia/USSR Relations |
| • Chicago Mayors                       | • Race Relations              | • And much more!               |
| • Chicago Stocks/Commodities Exchanges | • Reconstruction              |                                |
| • The Civil War                        | • World War I                 |                                |

For more information, contact a NewsBank representative by calling 800.762.8182 or emailing sales@newsbank.com.